

The BIFD AGM and Conference

Is the highlight of the business and social calendar for the Institute. A reputation for an excellent time precedes it and with the renowned hospitality that Scotland is famous for, the 2011 event promises to be a most memorable one.

THE VENUE is the state-of-the-art Marriott Hotel, in Edinburgh and their conference team have been pulling out all of the stops with the BIFD conference team, lead by the national president, Graeme Easton; pooling experience to ensure that even if you only fancy one event this year – this has to be the one!

There is a full programme of events planned, including time out to visit the tourist attractions which make Edinburgh such a favourite tourist destination. Log on and look at www.visitscotland.com and make sure that you check out all that it has to offer, including:

- Edinburgh Castle
- Edinburgh Zoo
- Rosslyn Chapel
- Palace of Holyrood House
- National Museums of Scotland
- Royal Yacht Britannia
- The Real Mary Kings Close
- Scotch Whisky Heritage Centre
- Edinburgh Dungeons

Just for your convenience, transport to and from the airport or railway station can be provided, making your travel plans as easy as could be. Huge savings can be made booking online in advance! If travelling by car, the hotel is just off the A1 – what could be easier? As with previous years, a generous rate for extra days' stay have been arranged for the Thursday and Sunday, giving you the opportunity to turn the event into a mini-break. Lastly, payment there is still the facility to pay by instalments if required, and by credit or debit card - see tariff for details. Booking Forms and Tariffs are also available via the Internet at: www.bifd.org.uk, including a link to the hotel's webpage. Keep an eye on our webpage for the latest itinerary news. ▲
